The fascist colonialist state of the Turkish bourgeoisie has positioned itself to attack the Rojava revolution. It aims to occupy Rojava, commit a genocide of the Kurdish people, oppress our Arab people who raised the flag of freedom, and submit the Assyrian, Armenian, and Circassian national communities who have won their democratic rights. It plans to first invade Rojava and northern Syria and gradually establish its rule in the rest of Syria, relying on the collaborators of the Turkish Republic, the looters, rapists, torturers of the fsa and other gangs based in Idlib and other areas. This was announced at the meeting held in Urfa on behalf of the „Syrian Interim Government and National Army“. The next dream of the denialist fascist colonialist regime is the occupation of the Medya Defense Areas.

Russia and the US have shown that they will pave the way for the attack and thus become accomplices of the fascist political-Islamist Erdoğan regime. Germany, France and the others have taken the same route. The Assad regime, on the other hand, tends to watch the colonialist occupation, in other words to provide practical support to smash the Kurdish national struggle and the Arab people united in the Freedom Front.

The world working class, the oppressed and the poor must become one fist, one barricade against the attack of the fascist Turkish colonial state under the patronage of Russia and the US. From the very beginning, freedom and fascism, equality / fraternity and denialism / colonialism, freedom of women and patriarchy, human dignity and enmity against human dignity, justice and injustice, the oppressed and the cruel will be confronted and fight each other in this genocidal invasion war in Rojava and northern Syria.

This war will deeply affect the future of workers, women, youth and the poor, not only in Rojava and northern Syria, but in a vast region from Asia to Cyprus, from the Middle East to North Africa. The victory of the Rojava Revolution, the Freedom Front of Rojava and Syria will intensify the revolutionary situation in the region and spark new struggles in the struggle for freedom, as well as hope, determination and the courage to move forward for the whole world. A victory for the denier, genocidal, colonialist fascists will force us, to make greater sacrifices for the struggle for liberation, not only in Rojava and Syria, but also from Palestine to India, from Columbia to the Philippines.

We call on the working class, women, youth, working people, the poor, the unemployed, intellectuals and artists from around the world, especially the Turkish, Kurdish and Arab people, the progressive, the revolutionary patriot and communist to support those who will fight for freedom, justice, equality between women and peoples, and become one fist, one barricade against fascism, genocide and the occupation. Let us stand up for the defense of the Rojava Revolution and the victory of the Freedom Front of Rojava and Syria by going to Rojava as fighters, doctors, health and press workers, actions, demonstrations, strikes, boycotts and rallies organize and take part in these, occupy representations of the Turkish state in all parts of the world, prevent trade at international ports, defend the Rojava revolution and the freedom of Rojava and Syria. Let us stand up for the victory of the Freedom Front of Syria.

Shoulder to shoulder with the Rojava revolution against fascism, genocide and colonial occupation!

Let us settle our debt to the Rojava revolution that defeated ISIS!

Solidarity is the tenderness of the peoples - let us strengthen the solidarity!

Long live the resistance, long live the victory!

Not the alliance of occupation and surrender will prevail in Rojava and north-east Syria, but the fighters of honor and freedom!

MLKP Kurdistan Organization

This time the revolution of Rojava and north-east Syria, is exposed to an even wider attack by the counter-revolutionary front led by the USA, Russia and Turkey. The invasion, which targets the autonomous structure of the revolution, its popular-democratic character and its armed military, has developed into a counter-revolutionary alliance between the imperialist forces and the fascist-colonialist Turkish state. As a result of this alliance, a 13-point plan and truce was agreed between the US and Turkey on 16 October to legitimize the Turkish occupation in Serêkaniyê and Girê Spî and to cover up the war crimes of the Turkish state and its gangs.

Today it is no longer a secret that this alliance, which also laid the foundation for the Sochi meeting and agreement on 22 October, is pursuing a strategy to liquidate the Rojava Revolution. It is obvious that the revolution of Rojava and north-east Syria, the first revolution of the 21st century, will be exposed to occupation and versatile encirclement by the colonial Turkish and Syrian states under the command of two global forces such as the US and Russia. The goal of the counter-revolutionary front is to divide the ground of the revolution on which our peoples live equally and freely, to destroy the achievements of the women-liberating revolution, and to liquidate our revolution through the reactionary-colonialist states.

In this regard, the 10-point plan, dealt on the meeting between Russia and Turkey, has the character of taking into account and completing the agreements made between the USA and Turkey. If one looks at the decisions of the Sochi meeting one sees that, just as with the agreements between the USA and Turkey, the occupation of Serêkaniyê and Girê Spî will be maintained. The imperialists are forcing the revolutionary forces to withdraw 30 kilometers and abandon the ground of our revolution defended by great sacrifice without any condition, otherwise they would agree with the occupation of the colonial bourgeois Turkish state. The imperialist alliance, which wants to disarm the defense force of our revolution, our revolutionary army, also desires that our revolution turns away from its libertarian and popular ideals and to bow to the surrender attacks.

Thus, the Turkish occupation state and the gangs belonging to it, which want to force capitulation on behalf of the imperialists and realize their colonial intentions, attacked with all kinds of weapons, including chemical ones, representatives of self-government, freedom fighters and the peoples in the defense of their soil. Countless massacres have been realized. By means of a psychological war, a dirty propaganda is being carried out.

The global states and their imperialist institutions have hidden their counterrevolutionary goals behind verbal warnings and threats of action against Turkey. But no one else than these forces allow the occupation war, all the dead, massacres, and all dirty politics to operate in the field.

For this reason, the decisions and the declared agreements between the US and Turkey on October 16, as well as between Russia and Turkey on October 22, shall never be accepted by the autonomous governance of Rojava and north-east Syria, by their revolutionary army and their peoples.

These decisions constitute a major offensive agreement against the regional revolution begun by the peoples of the Middle East in Rojava and north-east Syria. With the help of the Turkish state, which is the fascist attacking country, the two global states have begun a phase of war, occupation and surrender against the Kurdistan revolution and the unified regional revolution of our peoples. The common point of the two agreements is to push back, as far as possible, the achievements of the revolution and impose surrender on the will that has realized this revolution.

But one has to know that our people are not submitting to the occupation and liquidation attacks of America, Russia and Turkey. The revolution of Rojava and north-east Syria will live, will grow and will lead the war against the counter-revolution with even greater seriousness and discipline. No one should doubt that strength was drawn from the self-sacrificing war in Serêkaniyê, with which even greater resistance will be organized. Our revolution is already implementing actions against the invasion forces, striking heavy blows against them and showing our people the way with hope.

If someone thinks we will leave our revolutionary ground, show remorse to imperialists or ask for mercy of the occupiers, he*she will be heavily deceived. No force will be able to set limits to our revolution. Every spot of the soil of Rojava and northern Syria is soaked with blood of freedom fighters. It is the ancient homeland where our peoples have lived for centuries. Nobody can force our peoples to withdraw their lands. The only force that will go are the occupiers.

Our resistance of honor and freedom for the defense of the revolution draws strength from all kinds of action and international participation from the oppressed peoples of the world, from the democrats, revolutionaries, socialists, communists and above all from the Middle Eastern peoples. Those, who fill the streets of the world and hold up the flag of our revolution as a symbol of honor, let our resistance breathe. This revolutionary attitude and international solidarity have to grow. In this regard, the ongoing actions have to be increased and in particular the World Rojava Day on 2 November has to become a day of anger and rebellion against the occupation. The only way to defeat the international alliance of counter-revolution, is the organized and action-oriented attitude of the peoples of the Middle East, Turkey, of all four parts of Kurdistan and the World. The gate for new revolutions will be opened with solidarity.

Besides, the democratic national unity of the four parts of Kurdistan in the face of the invasion and massacres of the fascist colonial Turkish state against Kurdistan and our peoples are of vital importance. The existence and the achievements of the Kurdish people in all four parts are targeted by this war and its decisions. The resistance of the Kurdish people in four parts of Kurdistan and in different countries of the world against the occupation have already achieved to prevent a widening of the occupation and the aiming of their goals. But the danger is great. Therefore, the resistance and the struggle must be continued at all times. The task of all Kurdish forces is to unite in all four parts of Kurdistan within the resistance and struggle against the liquidation policy.

There is no time for silence and waiting. Because the fascist Turkish colonial state and its fascist chief Erdogan is also not waiting in silence, the heavy weapons and combat planes of the occupiers are also not waiting, the "Palace" media is also not waiting, the bourgeois-fascist parties are also not waiting. With all their power they are resorting to the most vilest means to crush our revolution. Of course, our revolution is also not waiting. Already now it is increasing the resistance struggle. As in Serêkaniyê, the revolution is being defended in a self-sacrificing way, causing the occupiers with every step to repent and in some places to retreat. For this reason, a silent waiting without action means to allow the suffocation of the revolution. The imperialists, invaders, reactionary fascist regimes and counterrevolutionaries are those who want the revolution to be strangled - those who maintain to wait and fraudulently explain their concerns. Actionlessness causes counterrevolutionaries to approach to their sinister goals. It is time to take action and defend the revolution.

Comrade Kerem Pehlivan (Demhat Günebakan) Is Immortal!

October 15, 2019

MLKP Kurdistan Organization

During the occupation attack of the fascist Turkish colonial state, which began on 9th October on the freedom ground of Rojava and northern Syria, our comrade Kerem Pehlivan (Demhat Günebakan) fell martyr.

Against the occupation preparations of the Turkish state against the revolution soil of Rojava, days ago comrade Demhat took position at the border to take on duties in the defense of Serekaniye. On 9th October the colonial-fascist Turkish state began to bombard our freedom lands and our revolutionary positions with warplanes and howitzers. The Sehit Serkan Battalion was the first target of the bombing. Comrade Demhat, who was carrying out his revolutionary tasks at the border as a fighter of the Sehit Serkan Battalion, fell martyr on the first day of the attack following an assassination attempt.

After starting his revolutionary work in Istanbul in 2014, he has been trained at the Hüseyin Demircioglu Academy in the spring of 2015 and made his way to Rojava. He took on duties and responsibilities as part of the Sehit Serkan Battalion.

In 2016 and 2017, he advanced the military work in the International Freedom Battalion on the Rakka front. In early 2017, when ISIS attacked the position of the International Freedom Battalion, he fought side by side with the comrades, who repulsed the attack and inflicted heavy casualties on the ISIS. A sacrificial resistance was made. In 2018, comrade Demhat Günebakan went to Afrin with determination to take over the flag of comrades who fell martyrs in the war for Afrin.

Comrade Demhat, who was stationed at the bases and positions of the front line in the occupation war of the colonial-fascist Turkish state against the free lands of Rojava and northern Syria, has fought side by side with the fighters of the Şehit Serkan Battalion and the Şehit Alişer Brigade in these foremost ranks of the war. He has the honor of being among the first martyrs of this struggle for freedom, of this honorable resistance of free human.

With his steadfastness and determination, comrade Demhat will live, as all the martyrs, in the struggle of our peoples and comrades for freedom and dignity against the attempt of the colonial-fascist Turkish state to destroy the achievements of the Revolution of Freedom and the Women's Revolution of Rojava.

Şehit Demhats comrades, the fighters of the QSD, YPG and YPJ will continue to offer the enemy their great resistance. Defending the free lands with their self-sacrifice, they inflict heavy casualties on the enemy.

We promise you and all our martyrs, to fight until the last drop of our blood, against the occupation war until our resistance of freedom and honor has liberated our soil.

The occupiers will never reach their aim! Victory belongs to dignity, freedom and resistance! We will win! We will win! We will win!

Revolutionaries from Turkey fell martyr in the struggle against the fascist invasion.

'They will always live in the united struggle of the peoples!'

Comrades Ceren Güneş and Aynur Ada are immortal!

Comrades Ceren Güneş from DKP (B) and Aynur Ada from DKP-BÖG fell martyr in the great resistance against the invasion of Rojava by the colonialist fascist Turkish state.

They rejected the patriarchal capitalist system and all „easy“ living opportunities within it and realized their own history in a revolutionary way. In Rojava we fought with them in the International Battalion and witnessed their revolutionary practice. We took part in the defense of our Rojava women revolution, shoulder to shoulder in the battle trenches.

Ceren and Aynur; The ideals of these two pioneering women, who are exemplary revolutionaries of the break-away from the patriarchal bourgeois order, the sharp practical reckoning with traditional roles imposed on women, are our ideals. We once again promise that for these ideals we will raise our level of warfare on all fronts and strengthen our revolutionary commitment to them at every step.

We will draw strength from their responsibility, daring, courage and determination, to shoulder strategic tasks within their party at a young age. We will learn from their practice of becoming leadership and command and force all the possibilities to include it in our leadership style.

Once again we salute all our female comrades who have become immortalized fighting with great devotion and determination in the trenches of Rojava. In the struggle against the invasion of Rojava, we promise victory to all the heroines and heroes of the resistance who have gone to immortality.

Comrades Ceren and Aynur are alive, the struggle continues!

Long live our Rojava revolution!

We will defend every position and fight for every piece of land!

Long live the women's comradeship!

Long live our women's revolution!

Statement of the central committee of the MLKP on the month of martyrs:

Let us remember the immortal children of our peoples wherever we are!

Let us carry the call of the immortals to the working and oppressed millions!

Workers, women, youth and the poor!

November is a month in which we commemorate our immortals, who have fallen into the earth like single seeds in the fight against fascism, colonialism, capitalism, the patriarchal system and imperialism, even more intensively, effectively and widespread than in other days. It is a month in which we ask ourselves and our action the most powerful questions in order to learn from the immortals and to draw strength, for the organization and the victory of the revolution; for the revolutionary power of the working class, which will lead humanity to a classless, gender-liberated society without borders and exploitation. That is why November is not the month of ceremonies, but the month of action. It is the month in which we sharpen our courage and our conviction. It is the month in which new goals are set.

Sisters and brothers!

The immortals believed in the people, they loved people. They stood by the side of the exploited, the oppressed, the poor, the denied, the despised and the victims of injustice. The pain and longing of the working class, the women, the laboring people in town and countryside, the Kurds, Alevis, the oppressed national communities, the children, the disabled, the elderly, those who are excluded from the right for education, health, housing and rest, had also become their pain and longing. The immortals have carried the honor and dignity of millions in their hearts. They have become the avant-garde of the hope of millions.

They fought for the liberation of workers, women, the poor, the working and the oppressed.

They are the venerable, the grand, the dervishes and the torchbearers of the people.

Comrades!

Our immortals are our flags.

They are those, who we miss. They are shining rivers for us in difficult times.

They are our eyes. They show us the way as we walk arm in arm with them under the greatest danger.

They are the measure of the selflessness of our party and the revolution; they are the militants of the highest degree of sacrifice.

We report back to them in the month of November.

We tell them:

Comrades, this is my report of my relation to the revolutionary struggle, for which you gave your life, to advance it!

Comrades, this is my report of my attachment to the values, for which you have given everything to increase them!

Comrades, this is my report of my attachment to the duty to protect our party from attacks, the party which you have defended with your life!

Comrades, this is my report concerning my relation with our imprisoned comrades, veterans and families of martyrs, who never fail in keeping your memory with respect!

Our words must be simple and clear. Our words must be comrades.

And we will finish our reports by telling which shortcomings we want to overcome by next November, which weaknesses we want to overcome by then, on which topics we want to renew ourselves by then.

With this goal in mind, as we leave the meeting, we will anchor deep in our hearts a consciousness that will rest upon us the gaze of those fighters who face death with bold audacity.

Sisters and brothers!

The names of those who shed their blood for the liberation of the oppressed and exploited will continue to serve as a banner of honor and hope, and the struggle for their ideals will continue.

From Mustafa Suphi and Ethem Nejat to Deniz, Mahir and Ibrahim, from Paramaz, the socialist son of our Armenian people, to Hayrabet Honca and Nubar Ozanyan, from Vedat Demircioğlu and Taylan Özgür to Niyazi Yıldızhan and Kerim Yaman, from Salih Bozışık to Sevinç Özgüder, from Ümit Kantancıoğlu to Asım Bezirci and Nesimi Çimen, from İlker Akman to Yüksel Eriş, from Recep Sarıaslan to Cuma Cihan, from Seyit Konuk to Ibrahim Ethem Coşkun, from Tamer Arda to Serpil Polat, from Cemalettin Yalçın to Ömer Yazgan, from Serap Macit Kolukırık to Talat Türkoğlu and Rıza Satılmış, from Aynur Sertbudak to Zeki Erginbay and Necdet Adalı, from Ertuğrul Karakaya to Necdet Erdoğan Bozkurt and Mine Bademci, from İsmail Gökhan Edge to Yusuf Metin and Kenan Bilgin, from Ümit Altıntaş to Hatice Yürekli, from Osman Yaşar Yoldaşcan and Fatih Öktilmiş to Lale Çolak, from Sibel Sürücü to Sinan Ateş, from Niyazi Aydın to Sabahat Karataş and Leyla Aracı, from Mehmet Demirdağ to Nergis Gülmez and Sefagül Keşgin, from Cafer Cangöz to Cüneyt Kahraman and Sevda Serinyel, from Ulaş Bayraktaroğlu to Yasin Aydın and Göze Altunöz, from Umut Özsepet to Fırat Çaplık to Özge Aydın, from Necla Baksi to Hüseyin Arslan, from Mazlum Doğan to Diyar Xerib and Delal Amed, from İrfan Çelik and Adil Can to Hacer İpek Samancı and Cennet Değirmenci, from Baran Serhat to Hasan Ocak to Kutsiye Bozoklar and Yeliz Erbay; those who sacrificed their lives for a free, honorable and happy life of the laboring and the oppressed, for social justice, for freedom of the peoples and the women, will be forever alive. Their graves will never remain silent, the voices of the fallen will still be heard from these graves, and will continue to call and touch new generations of workers and the oppressed.

Workers, women, youth, artists, the poor, oppressed and ignored people!

The immortals were your children, your siblings and your comrades. They were your friends from the district, the factory, the school, the union and the association. They were the voice, the fist and the will of your yearning for social justice, a human and free life. They have become flames that strike against those who turn the world to hell.

Take part in the work of their commemoration. Organize commemorative events for the immortals in your homes and associations. Visit their families. Bring flowers to their graves. Give your children their names. Write poems for them. Produces melodies and songs. Read their writings, books and biographies. Hang up pictures of them at home. Write articles about the immortals you know for other people to know them. Talk to your comrades about photos and items you keep in memory.

Sisters and brothers, hold the immortals by the hands. Gain honor and happiness, become free by participating in their ongoing struggle and winning new workers, women and youth for the struggle. Mobilize your labor and sacrifice, your creativity and your courage to destroy fascism, colonialism, the patriarchal system and capitalism.

The Martyrs of the Revolution are the guardians of our honor!

Our fight continues everywhere, comrades!

You are with us forever; we are with you forever!
